

I started painting when I came home from Vietnam in 1970
I painted for few years and then became busy with family and making a living.
After retiring I moved to Arizona four years ago. I started painting again a couple of years later and tapped into the spirit of my life growing up in South Dakota also of my new life here in Arizona.
David Huffman