

I'm just an Artist like everyone else trying to make a living of what I love doing. Born in California but raised in Oklahoma. I'm graduated from Arizona State University with a Fine Art Degree in Drawing. Told I would never become a painter but I never listen so here I am. Art will always give me a sense of freedom that is what drives me to continue on the journey of being an artist.