

Eileen Pieczonka is an award-winning author and a freelance writer with a degree in Photo Offset. She's a wannabe cowgirl who loves animals. Eileen has spent several years with her rescue therapy dog Jamie helping children enhance their reading skills. This fueled Eileen's passion for children's literacy, and Jamie became her inspiration for writing Blueberry Bear. She has great compassion for animal welfare and supports rescue shelters as well as children organizations by donating her books for their fundraisers.
