

I am new to the Artists of the Superstitions and am happy to share my information and samples of my obsession.

I moved to Gold Canyon after retiring in Oregon. I have always loved crafts and art. I started with other forms of art expression but discovered the copper splash and started painting. I also work with other forms of copper art i.e. matting for mixed media and pressed copper.