

Sue is an internationally recognized beadweaving artist, designer, and instructor living right here in AZ. Sue likes to stitch teeny tiny little seed beads into unique shapes and designs. While most of Sue's work consists of jewelry pieces, she also makes amazing wall art and home decor. Sue's beadweaving seems to break the rules and manipulate materials in unexpected directions. She enjoys making truly unique and sophisticated pieces, and is known to have a few odd and quirky bits of whimsy on the table too! Since moving to AZ, she has been practicing lampwork bead making and creates glass pieces to include in her designs. Sue's pieces are truly unique, from the simple modern elements to the super luxurious statement pieces you are guaranteed a one-of-a-kind artistic masterpiece.
